Dear Yank Barry,

Thank you for your gift. Your donation saves lives and restores hope in communities ravaged by disasters both natural and man-made.

Right now we are urgently responding to the emergency in East Africa. The most severe drought in two decades is upon the region. Famine has taken root in Somalia, and an estimated 12 million people urgently need assistance. In many remote and insecure places—where the nutrition crisis is worst—we are the only organization capable of providing this aid. Your donations ensure that we can respond quickly to emergencies like this, while maintaining our other programs around the world that benefit millions of people every year. Their lives are better because of your generosity. On their behalf—thank you!

Sincerely,

Nan Dale
